

North Island Cruisers 2017 Education Scholarship Application

The North Island Cruisers will award a $1,000 scholarship to an automotive enthusiast in the North Island who is passionate about the car hobby. We are committed to encouraging the next generation of car crazy guys and gals. No matter your field of endeavour, we will pay the trade school, college or university of your choice $1000 toward this year's tuition. We know that automotive enthusiasts come from all walks of life. The successful applicant will have to show that they have already engaged in the car hobby with a project.

Eligibility

- Applicant must be eligible to be, or are already enrolled in a trade school, college or university for the 2017-18 school year.
- We welcome individuals that are currently in the workforce who want to further their education.
- Application form must be typed or printed legibly by the applicant. (The application form below may be photocopied).
- Applicants must demonstrate the ability to write clearly in an autobiography of 750 to 1,000 words describing academic and career interests, awards, extracurricular activities and especially any automotive related activities.
- Applications must be accompanied by two letters of recommendation from high school faculty members, employers, or associates familiar with the applicants work, career and hobby interests.
- Applicants are encouraged to provide additional information such as samples of the automotive projects they have worked on and/or completed. (limit to two, please).
